

ENGINEERING

CPA offers the following services:

- Support in engineering design and development phases, both for products and processes, and project management when required.
- Execution of functional tests, lifespan testing, reliability and assemblability. Validation of design modifications and changes.
- Construction, classification and validation of prototypes and pre-series.
- Obtaining and handling client feedback, including complaints. Establishment of satisfaction levels.
- Analysis of guarantees and returns. Management of corrective measures.
- Control, storage, preservation and provision of documents.
- Support and/or execution of all types of quality engineering activities.
- Control and monitoring of management, quality, production, satisfaction and other KPIs.
- Resident engineers by specialities.

